Division of Narberth into Three Districts Planned

Court Will Hear Petition September 27th. Now Largest District in State

A project of the greatest interest to the voters of Narberth was launched this week, when preliminary steps were taken to split up the borough into three election districts.

A petition, signed by over 20 citizens, representing different parties and affiliations, was filed at Norristown on Tuesday, and a preliminary decree has been granted. The final hearing will be at Court No. 1, Norristown, on Saturday, September 27, before Judge J. Ambler Williams.

Senator Fletcher W. Stites is attorney for the petitioners, who are led by Judge of Elections William J. Kirkpatrick and J. Bertram Nesper. The petition follows agitation extending over a period of years, to reduce the unwieldy size of the election district.

Narberth, it appears, is the largest election district in the State of Pennsylvania, and one of the largest in the country. There are at the present time 2103 registered voters in the borough, making it difficult to handle the crowds and to count the votes. It is hoped that the split-up can be put through before the Presidential election.

The plans call for three districts—two on the north side and one on the south side, as follows:

ELECTION DISTRICT NO. 1: Beginning at the intersection of the line of the Pennsylvania Railroad with the centre line of Essex Avenue, thence northwardly by said centre line of Essex Avenue to its intersection with the centre line of Woodbine Avenue; thence eastwardly along said centre line of Woodbine Avenue to its intersection with the centre line of Narberth Avenue; thence northwardly along said centre line of Narberth Avenue to its intersection with the centre line of Montgomery Avenue; thence southeastwardly along said centre line of Montgomery Avenue to its intersection with the southerly side of Haverford Avenue; thence westwardly along the southerly side of Haverford Avenue to its intersection with the easterly side of Narberth Avenue; thence south wardly along said easterly side of Narberth Avenue to the Pennsylvania Railroad; and thence westwardly along the line of said Pennsylvania Railroad to the place of beginning.

ELECTION DISTRICT NO. 2: Beginning at the intersection of the Pennsylvania Railroad with the centre line of Essex Avenue, thence northwardly by said centre line of Essex Avenue to its intersection with the centre line of Woodbine Avenue; thence eastwardly along said centre line of Woodbine Avenue to its intersection with the centre line of Narberth Avenue; thence northwardly along said centre line of Narberth Avenue to its intersection with the centre line of Montgomery Avenue; thence northwestwardly along said centre line of Montgomery Avenue to its intersection with the westerly side of Wynnewood Avenue; thence southwardly along said westerly side of Wynnewood Avenue to its intersection with the Pennsylvania Railroad; thence eastwardly along the line of said Pennsylvania Railroad to the place of beginning.

ELECTION DISTRICT NO. 3: Beginning at the intersection of the easterly side of Narberth Avenue with the northerly property line of the Pennsylvania Railroad, thence southeastwardly along said northerly property line of the Pennsylvania Railroad to its intersection with the southerly side of Rockland Avenue; thence westwardly along said southerly side of Rockland Avenue to its intersection with the southwesterly side of Wynnewood Avenue; thence northwestwardly along said southwesterly side of Wynnewood Avenue to its intersection with the line of the Pennsylvania Railroad; thence eastwardly along said line of the Pennsylvania Railroad to its intersection with the easterly side of Narberth Avenue; thence northwardly along said easterly side of Narberth Avenue to its place of beginning.

The petition asks further that the polling places be as follows: District No. 1, Elm Hall; District No. 2, the building on the northwest corner of Essex and Haverford avenues; District No. 3, the Boy Scout cabin on the plot of ground to the south of the station.

If the division is made as outlined above, it will locate 887 voters in District One; 908 in District Two and 608 in District Three. It will mean, incidentally, that the election officials will be enabled to get an hour or so of sleep on election night. In former elections coffee and doughnuts, administered at regular hours until daylight, kept them on the job.

Exceptions and remonstrances to the petition must be filed at least 10 days before the date set for the hearing, which is scheduled for 10 A. M. on the 27th of this month.

BILL DURBIN RESIGNS

Coaching Work Demands Withdrawal from Scout Troop.

At a meeting of the Troop Committee of the Narberth Scout Troop held on Wednesday last, Bill Durbin's resignation as scoutmaster was accepted with much regret by the Committee. Mr. Durbin had written that due to the demands of his coaching and athletic work he really could not give the time to scouting and asked to be relieved.

The Narberth Troop will not parade in Philadelphia on Defense day as we learn that there are to be no Boy Scouts in line. All troop members will please note.

Mr. Arthur L. Cooke was present at the meeting and was appointed assistant scoutmaster. He is given a hearty welcome.

Regular meetings of the troop will be held every Monday at the scout house at 7.45.

The Narberth Fathers' Association which is being formed to sponsor scout work will hold a meeting at Scout Headquarters on Wednesday, October 1, of which further notice will be given. It is hoped that the fathers of boys now in the Troop will take note of this meeting, as their co-operation in making the Narberth Troop larger and more efficient is solicited. We do not ask that they perform any special work, but the committee feels that they are interested enough to attend this preliminary meeting where methods will be discussed bearing upon the advancement and education of their sons. The boys themselves will work harder and feel that their work is appreciated when they see that their fathers are interested. All men in Narberth who want to know more about the scout movement are cordially invited to attend.

The Fathers' Association will be conducted as a help to the work and there will be no dues for membership. All boys now tenderfoots must try and pass their second-class tests as soon as possible. Hikes are being arranged and the assistant scoutmaster will take the tests of those boys who are ready to try for second-class badges.

Major Thomas has been drilling the scouts for several evenings, and it is expected that when they next appear in public the improvement in their carriage and appearance will be noted.

Invitation Dance.

The newly formed Rose Glen Canoe Club will give the first of a series of dances which it is planning for the coming season in Elm Hall, Friday, September 12, Defense day. Music will be by Texans Orchestra, well known locally as entertainers at the White Apron Club at Llanerch.

Dancing will begin at 8.30 P.M. Tickets may be secured from any of the club members. The subscription is $2 a couple.

We appreciate your help in sending us personal items.

Cornerstone Laying Tomorrow

Lutherans Plan Ceremony for Afternoon

Plans have been completed for the laying of the cornerstone of the new building of the Lutheran Church tomorrow afternoon. The service, the program of which is announced below, will begin at 3.30.

The great hole made in the lot on the corner of Woodbine and Narberth avenues is in no danger of caving in, for it is being rapidly filled, not with the earth that was taken out, because that would be a backward step, but with stone walls to bear up the sides and ends of the basement, and as a foundation on which the superstructure shall securely rest. For the upper walls between foundation and roof kinds of stone have been selected with reference to beauty, strength and finish, so far as the committee are able to go. Every member of the congregation is satified that the best will be done, as they know it has been in the past; and they are looking for a fine piece of workmanship, which they feel sure the builders and contractors are able and glad to give them.

The Lutherans have a choice location for their church building, and it will require the best they can possibly do to measure up to the fineness of the site, and this they intend to do. Everything points to the 7th of September, when the ceremony of cornerstone laying will take place and a general invitation is given to attend it.

Great credit is due the Building Committee for their untiring efforts to make the whole enterprise a delightful success, and also for the good judgment they have shown throughout. What is needed now, above everything else, is that Heaven shall smile propitiously upon the congregation and upon their huge, but pleasant undertaking, that without delays or accidents of any kind the work may go forward to a glorious completion. We are sure that the Lutherans shall have the finest sympathies of all the thinking people of the town, in the struggles they must overcome, to rear the much-desired structure on the summit of that choice hill, where they can worship God to their own joy and satisfaction and for the benefit, we trust, of the whole community.

Tennis Club Holds Annual Tourney

Finals to Be Played Thi Week-end

The annual tournament of the Tennis Club was started on Saturday last and play continued over on Labor Day. Many interesting matches were played and many upsets occurred. The chief feature of interest was the form displayed by the younger members which speaks well for the future when the present stars begin to fade. The tournament will continue this Saturday when some real exciting matches should be played.

The Junior and Girls' Tournament will start this week and it is hoped that every member qualified will send in his or her entry, and particularly as no fees will be charged in these events.

The results to date are as follows:

Buys New Home.

Mr. James Ford Donnelly, of the Avon Apartments, has purchased a new home on McLenahan's Mill road, Wynnewood.

The house, a new one of stucco, is fourth from Montgomery avenue. The street is commonly called Mill road, as no one knows just how the full name is spelled.

The house was purchased from E. R. Hall through W. Gordon Smith. The asking price was $15,000.

Guild to Meet.

The opening meeting of the Westminster Circle will be held on Thursday evening, September 11, at the home of Mrs. Patterson, Narbrook Park. Mrs. Aiken and Mrs. Crowe are the assisting hostesses.

Today's Tussle To Test Title Tie

Bala-Cynwyd and Narberth in Battle

Manager Fred Walzer's "champeen" baseball tossers lost their leadership of the Main Line Baseball League last Saturday when they got careless and permitted Bala-Cynwyd, runner-up of the first half season, to beat them to a tune of 7-1. However, they turned in regulation victories in the two Labor Day games, and this enabled them to finish the league season in a tie with the neighboring community nine for first-place honors.

The tie will necessitate a play-off to decide the second half championship, and said battle unto death has been scheduled for this afternoon at the Narberth playground at Windsor and Wynnewood avenues. Crowds are expected from afar, for the Boroughities and the Cynwydites are keen rivals and interest in their scraps assumes that attendant upon a young world series contest.

This play-off will be the second in which the local nine and its Schuylkill Valley rival have come to grips for the Main Line diamond title. The second half last year also ended in a tie between Narberth and Bala-Cynwyd. The Boroughites won the game and with it the crown that time.

Competition was keen the first half of this season and for some time the Bala-Cynwydiacs threatened to bring on another tie with a subsequent play-off. The Walzerites nosed them out by a few games that half however.

In the game with Bala-Cynwyd Saturday, which resulted in the leadership tie, the Men of Walzer evidently forgot to nibble of raisins or to indulge in a good drink of Nuxated Iron, for all "wim and wigger" was missing from their usual lusty bats. But then the explanation was perhaps Hen Vockel, star slab artist of the Valley nine. "Heneree," who is a good marksmen with the horsehide at all times and occasions, was on his best behavior Saturday—with the net result that the locals were held down to two measley hits.

However, Borough fans got some consolation out of the Babe Ruth stunt pulled off by one Quincy Lee Yowell. The Hon. Quincy, whom friends find it safer to call Eppa, surveyed Vockel's shoots from his pigmy height of six feet four, and then, unimpressed, took a mighty swing. When the enemy fielders finally caught up with the ball Ep had done his daily dozen around the bags and crossed home-plate with Narberth's one and only run.

Four men were the most to face the brilliant Vockel in any inning. Bala-Cynwyd on the other advanced to the attack in hordes in each frame and before the fracas had concluded garnered unto itself 13 safe wallops.

Monday.

On Labor Day the Boroughites retrieved their "rep" by grabbing both remaining league games. In the morning they played Berwyn at Berwyn and easily scalped the upliners, 12-6. Bill Kane was bigstick man, garnering three hits in four times at bat. Yowell was started on the mound, but was withdrawn when the Berwynites started getting too familiar with him in the fifth stanza. Bobbie Gibson finished the game for Narberth.

Wayne Perishes.

Wayne couldn't stand prosperity in the afternoon game with Narberth and after amassing a 4 to 1 lead allowed the champs to come from behind and win out 6 to 4 Denham Young, after pitching a noble game of ball against Berwyn Saturday, was nominated by Manager Dorsaneo to still the enemy bats and performed well for three innings. In the fourth, however, Den's arm went bad and Brooke was forced to go in again and finish the job. Three hits and one run was all the damage Narberth could do to his deliveries, but Wayne after the fourth completely subsided and so the enemy walked away with the bacon.

Gibson was touched up for eight safeties, while Narberth collected only six, but three of these, a single, double and a triple, together with a hit batsman, gave the home

Mitten Planning A Greater Extension of Bus Lines

Explains the Reasons for Wanting Narberth Route

A comprehensive motor bus service that will take in West Manayunk, Pencoyd and West Conshohocken and cover every principal road in the Narberth-Bala-Cynwyd region is planned by the Montgomery Bus Company, according to a statement to "Our Town," made yesterday by P. J. Mitten, president of the company.

The company is scheduled to appear before the Public Service Commission on Tuesday, September 9, to ask a franchise, and, according to Mr. Mitten, expects to meet any opposition that will develop with a clean-cut statement of what it can and will do to solve the transportation problem of that part of the township.

Mr. Mitten declared that the present Gladwyne-Ardmore service is an indication of what can be done to give adequate transportation to points north of Montgomery avenue now badly in need of it.

"This can be done by a corporation, which would not expect to get a return on money expended for several years, but would be next to impossible of accomplishment by a private individual," he said, and continued:

"Our plans call for busses of the same type now operating on Lancaster pike to run on Montgomery avenue between Bryn Mawr and Sixty-third street and Lancaster avenue on the present route; another line to run on West Conshohocken avenue and Levering Mill road in Bala and Cynwyd; an extension of the service on Montgomery avenue in Cynwyd beyond Bryn Mawr avenue and routes in West Manayunk, West Conshohocken and Pencoyd not yet plotted out.

"I would also like to say that this company has no intention of 'squeezing out' the owner of the Narberth Bus Line. We made application to the Public Service Commission and notified the Commissioners of Lower Merion Township of our plan after we learned this man had been trying to dispose of his interest in the line. Hundreds of bus riders in that territory have also asked us to give a more complete, safe and satisfactory service than is being given at present."

THE COUNTRY FAIR

The Tennis Club's Country Fair will be held September 26 and 27, and it promises to be bigger and better than ever.

The dates for the third annual Country Fair have been settled upon at last and it gives us great pleasure to relieve the anxiety with the above announcement. It had been the intention to announce the dates last week but some doubts as to the arrangements of the Prince of Wales having been removed, everything has been satisfactorily settled and the country fair will be held September 26 and 27.

The officials of the tennis club have been amazed at the widespread interest in this announcement and have had many requests from all quarters as to just when the fair was to be held this year and it is very gratifying to know that Narberth is putting on a show that attracts such attention. Of course, as is always the case, the club was anxious to give the best in the world and arranged these dates to make it possible for His Royal Highness to be present.

Great attractions are being arranged for and many surprises are in store for those fortunate enough to be present. Duke the Dancing Duck was good, but look out for Duck the Dancing Duke, it's a "knock out." Further announcements will be made each week of additional attractions, but many will be held back as surprises.

All members of the club are urged to be present at the general meeting to be held on Tuesday evening, September 9, at the club at 8 P. M., sharp so that many of the details can be straightened out.

DON'T FORGET THEM

Have you paid your county tax? Or rather, we might ask, do you know what the amount of the tax is, or where it is paid?

Some day if you find a notice stuck on your front door to the effect that the baby carriage has been attached for unpaid taxes, you will begin to wonder.

The fact is that it is up to the individual residents of Montgomery county to find out how much they owe. No bills are mailed out voluntarily, and the first intimation we usually get is a delinquent notice with a juicy penalty added. Often the penalty is greater than the original tax.

Property owners and individuals over 21 years of age who have not paid their county taxes for the current year should immediately write to F. W. Shalkop, county treasurer, Norristown, Pa., for bill of same, enclosing a self-addressed stamped envelope.

Bills for county taxes are only sent on request, with postage enclosed for reply.

After September 15, 1924, all county taxes remaining unpaid are placed in the hands of the delinquent tax collector, who charges a substantial fee for collecting, together with penalty of five per cent.

Out to Beat 1920 Vote.

Women are getting down to the business of voting.

Statistics show that approximately 25 per cent. of the women eligible to vote, actually voted in 1920. This means only about one out of every four.

In 1920 one State had 3,462,879 voting citizens, her total vote was 2,090,468. What about the 1,372,411 who did not vote?

The women's bureau of the Republican National committee, with headquarters in Chicago, has just issued an appeal to the women asking them to see that every eligible voter in their families goes to the polls on registration day.

BASEBALL

team four runs in the fourth, enough of a lead to win.

Wayne got off to a one-run lead in the first inning that was clearly earned. Nick Dorsaneo was patient and walked down to first on four bad ones. Mickie O'Brien sacrificed neatly and on McCue's double to left Nick scampered across.

Narberth got a cheap one in the second. Yowell was safe on O'Donnell's error and advanced to second when Young walked. C. Humphries took third on a wild pitch and scored on O'Donnell's second error.

Three runs in the fourth finished Wayne's scoring. O'Donnell tripled to deep centre to start it off. Gibson threw out W. Dorsaneo but Hemcher scored O'Donnell with a single to right. Davis also bingled to centre sending Hemcher to third, and then the fun began. The double steal was attempted and C. Humphries, with an easy out facing him at home on Hemcher, threw wild, allowing the runner to score. Young lined out to second and Manager Nick walked. The double steal was again tried and again Humphries threw wild to home, Davis scoring the last Wayne run.

Narberth drove Young to cover in their half. Young dug his own grave when he soaked Vernon Fleck in the ribs. Jean Davis pounded one to right and was obliterated at second when Yowell grounded to J. Dorsaneo. C. Humphries doubled to left, scoring two, and George Fleck tripled to the same spot, scoring Humphries. McCue took Gibson's fly and threw home in time to catch Fleck trying to score, but Hemcher dropped the ball. Brooke went to the peak and stopped the rally.

Narberth added one for good measure in the seventh. W. Dorsaneo let Dickie's grounder go through him and H. Humphries walked. Davis singled to right, scoring Dickie for the sixth tally. The score:

Wednesday.

Not satisfied with the Labor day comeback the Boroughites went out and grabbed themselves another game Wednesday night just to fully convince the populace that the lapse last Saturday which resulted in defeat by Bala-Cynwyd was temporary only. The Knights of Pythias were engaged in battle on the Narberth playgrounds and were quietly interred, 6-5.

H. Humphries struck out 10 men in six innings. Billie Kane sent the horsehide visiting over the right field fence and by the time the enemy fielders found it coyly hiding in a tin can Sir William had dented the home plate after passing the three others at a 10-mile gait.

Odiorne was back in the line-up after a long camping trip and duly celebrated his return to civilization by batting out a double, a single and a sacrifice.

A. Meyers was high stick man for the visitors getting two triples. M. Tabbutt, who started the game for the Knights, looked good but had no control and had to be relieved.

THE FIRST FALL BOOKS

New Season Opens for Community Library Patrons.

The new season is going to be a mighty entertaining one for booklovers if the publishers should maintain and increase the quality and variety which have distinguished their first offerings. Seven of the best new books are already available at the Community Library and more will follow steadily as the season advances. These seven books cover a wide variety of interest, background and narrative skill. Some people will like all of them; any one who reads at all would find in at least one of them real entertainment and satisfaction, and each one is a demonstration that there are still capable writers who are thoroughly well able to write in a modern style without indulging in psychoanalysis with its attendant lapses from good taste.

Take "I'll Show You the Town" for instance. In style and subject matter it's as modern as they come. It is racy without being risque; it is humorous without being cheap. It concerns the affairs of one man with many women without the slightest departure from wholesomeness, and, furthermore, it is well written with a sustained narrative style and a sharp delineation of character which will gratify the appetite of all readers who require literary skill as the sine qua non of reading for entertainment.

The complete list of new fiction purchased during August follows:

"Deep in the Hearts of Men"—Mary Waller.

"The Garden of Folly"—Stephen Leacock.

"In a Shantung Garden"—Louise Jordan Miln.

"I'll Show You the Town"—Elmer Davis.

"A Passage to India"—E. M. Forster.

"The Ragged Messenger"—W. B. Maxwell.

"Woodsmoke"—Francis Brett Young.

Luncheon to Bridesmaids.

Mrs. Edward S. Haws, of Dudley avenue, gave a luncheon last Saturday in honor of the bridesmaids who will attend her daughters at their wedding, October 15.

The wedding, to be held at the Narberth Presbyterian Church will be a double one. Miss Marion Francis Haws will become the bride of Mr. Arthur Landis Cooke, and Miss Ruth Ely Haws will be married to Mr. John Collum Nash.

The following were present at the luncheon: Miss Elinor Smith, of Scranton, who will be maid of honor to Miss Marian Haws; Mrs. G. Jarrett Sauerhoff, of Miami, Florida, who will be maid of honor to Miss Ruth Haws, and the following bridesmaids; Miss Marion Scott Graham and Miss Elizabeth Rebecca Cooke, of Narberth; Mrs. Allen Koenig, of Brooklyn, and Miss Sara Jane Haws, of Pottstown.

Stites on Job.

Judge Williams has reduced the sentence which he imposed on June 28th upon Robert Cohen, a Philadelphia bootlegger, arrested with his brother, Arthur, in Lower Merion, with an automobile well filled with liquor. The sentence of three months' imprisonment was cut to two months. He got out of jail Monday.

The petition was presented by Attorney Fletcher W. Stites, of Narberth. It was set forth that Cohen's real estate business in Philadelphia is suffering severely because of his incarceration.

OLD ST. DAVIDS CHURCH

209th Anniversary Will Be Fittingly Celebrated Next Sunday.

Sunday, September 7, will mark the 209th anniversary of the first service held on the first Sunday in September, 1715, in old St. Davids Church, then just completed.

It has been the custom for many years for the congregation of the venerable church to make the first Sunday in September noteworthy by special observance, and this custom will be followed Sunday when there will be two services held by the rector, the Rev. Crosswell McBee, D. D., viz: At 8 o'clock, Holy Communion, and at 10.45, morning Prayer, Holy Communion and sermon. The music will be directed by Frederick E. Godfrey, organist.

The church started as a mission in 1713, when John Clubb was appointed by the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts. The first collections for the building of a church were made in 1714, and on May 9, 1715, the foundations were actually laid.

In those days the church was not strictly denominational. Some of its ministers came from other Protestant churches than the Episcopal, and among the worshipers were Methodists, Presbyterians and Lutherans.

Tradition and history take the congregation back to at least 1700, when there was a log church in which the settlers were said to have barricaded themselves against the Indians. In Day's "Historical Collection of Pennsylvania" there is a statement that "at Radnor an ancient Episcopal church was erected of logs, which is mentioned by Oldmixon as being surrounded by about 50 families." Also, an early newspaper account states that the present church has taken the place of the one made of logs.

According to letters discovered in England by Henry Pleasants, Esq., and the historian of the church, while he was in England, it appears that the Rev. John Clubb requested that he be sent to Radnor among his native people, the Welsh, among whom he had preached as often as possible. The request was made in 1713, so it is likely that the mission was begun two or three years earlier than was at first believed.

In 1759 a schoolhouse was erected on the knoll in front of the graveyard, and in 1765 the church was floored. It was in taking up part of this floor a few years ago for purposes of repair, that two skulls were found, of a man and woman. It has never been learned who they were, or by what chance or through what honor they were buried there.

During the Revolution, the church was practically deserted, and tradition has it that the British soldiery used some of the lead window frames to melt into bullets and even stabled their horses in the house of worship. But the latter fact has no confirmation and is believed to be gossip of the parishioners of the day. A silver communion set presented by Queen Anne is said to have disappeared about this time.

Authentic tradition has it that 16 unknown soldiers who had died in neighboring farm houses at the Battle of Brandywine were buried in the churchyard west of the gallery steps. It is still tradition based on rumor of time, that Major General Gray used the hollow which is thickly grown in evergreens, to assemble his troops before the attack upon General Wayne at Paoli on the night of September 30, 1777.

Various additions have been made to the church, but most of them were years ago. The last change of any extent in the interior of the church was in 1830, when the pulpit was enlarged and moved to a new position, and the pews, numbering 23, were rearranged. A new vestry was built at that time, and was rebuilt in 1871.

Autumn Days in the Carolinas
The Hall Mark Of Service
TINTED MOUNTAIN PEAKS IN THE SAPPHIRE COUNTRY THAT WONDERFUL "LAND OF THE SKY"
An Autumn Holiday of Dreams
8000 Square Miles of Picturesque Peaks
¶ Enjoy an Autumn vacation amid the mountains of the Carolinas. Here Nature has been lavish with its majestic handiwork. Its beauty and impressive grandeur will surprise and delight you. It will prove a satisfying, pleasing vacation.
¶ Within a radius of fifty miles of Asheville, there are more than 60 forest-crowned peaks, over 6000 feet high, and over 100 mountains exceeding 5000 feet in height. Included in this regal mountain playground are Mt. Mitchell, the highest point in Eastern America; Mt. Pisgah, overlooking Asheville; Chimney Rock, Hickory Nut Gap, Hickory Nut Falls, Linville, Mayview Park, Hendersonville, Kanuga Lake, Blowing Rock, Grandfather mountain and Lake Toxaway.
¶ Splendid and ample accommodations at admirable hotels meet the most exacting demands of the visitor and facilities for golf, auto trips and scenic rambles provide an infinite variety of recreative pleasures.
AN IDEAL AUTUMN VACATION
With the end of Summer as Autumn approaches under Southern skies, dainty colors deck the landscape with exquisite Autumn tints which glow with a soft and appealing tenderness and a peculiar delicacy not seen elsewhere. Sunny plumes of pine trees on the hills and crowns of gold along the ravines present transports of color and the whole world seems immersed in a light that strangely enhances the mountain scenery of the Carolinas, revealing a picture of Autumnal beauty such as no artist can paint.
¶ Through sleeping car service is provided by the Pennsylvania Railroad in conection with the Southern Railway from New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington.
